EL BOLETÍN

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE KUSH.

You may have noticed this year brought about a few changes within our restaurant group. This is why we wanted to thank our Kush Fam from the bottom of our heart, for your loyalty, love, and support. It's meant more than you could ever know. The year 2020 has by far been the most challenging year the Hospitality industry has ever seen. However, it wasn't all bad. As a company and team, it further established for us that we have the most incredible patrons who support us and any changes necessary to fit into this "new normal." Your health and safety have always been our top priority and continue to be. Every person within the Kush Hospitality team is grateful to each patron who dines, drinks, and helps us spread the 'good word' about their experience with us. We humbly ask for your continued support because the impacts of the pandemic are not yet over, as much as we would like them to be.

Our best advice is to keep calm and EAT KUSH.

LOKAL & KUSH COCONUT GROVE

The Grove is getting its groove back just in time for the Fall breeze, and we are so HERE FOR IT. With LoKal and Kush by Spillover conveniently nestled in this magical little burrow, follow your bliss to the perfect place to take your pup, grab the best burger in town, or a truly magnificent cocktail. After so many months indoors, we hope you'll be stretching your legs and visiting both locales in one day! Local tip: Kush Coconut Grove offers Happy Hour M-F 5-7 pm, and Brunch Saturday & Sunday 11:00 am-2:30 pm.

NOCHE NOCHE BUENA

On the night before Noche Buena, La Cocina in Hialeah will be throwing Noche Noche Buena party and charity event that will put to shame every other Noche Buena you've ever attended. Picture your family's Noche Buena but on steroids. This festivity is brought to you by Kush Hospitality, Pata Sucia Patty, and Hialeah Hector, La Cocina's official hype team. On December 23rd, 6 pm, Cuban time, La Cocina will be in full swing with live music by Plena Libre, a Holiday Vendor Market, Coquito, F'ck Fidel cigars, and FREE FOOD! Serving a roasted pig a.k.a. Lechón with all the trimmings which you can enjoy for free until we run out!

We're also aiming to do some good deeds this holiday and are requesting guests to bring new or used shoe donations for Shoes for Streets, which provides them to the homeless community. And if you donate, La Cocina will treat you with a raffle ticket for your chance to win fun prizes!

At the end of the night, take a complimentary shot of Coquito with us and participate in our energetic Limpieza to cleanse us of bad 2020 juju and burn what you don't want to take into 2021! Pero like...no te lo pierdas!

***This event is 21 and up. Please bring proper ID.**
****Must be wearing your mask when not seated at a table.**

LOCAL SPOT LIGHT:
HAVANA CLUB RUM • HERITAGE AND HISTORY

The Arechabala Family started their rum-making business in 1878 in Cuba. They first registered the HAVANA CLUB trademark in 1934. With its well-rounded flavor featuring notes of tropical fruits and hints of vanilla and oak, HAVANA CLUB quickly became a beloved and iconic Cuban brand. It was a favorite of locals as well as American and European tourists flocking to Cuba's chic nightspots and casinos from the late 1930s to the 1960s. HAVANA CLUB became one of the symbols of the razzle and dazzle of that Golden Age.

Then everything changed. On January 1st, 1960, at gunpoint, the Cuban regime seized the company's assets without compensation. The Arechabala family lost everything and was forced to flee the homeland they loved, with a scant few of their remaining possessions – the precious rum recipe being one of them. But, without the means to restart the rum-making business, it seemed HAVANA CLUB would only exist on a tattered piece of paper.

Just like the Bacardi Family, the Arechabala Family suffered the same sad end to their business in Cuba. However, Bacardi had rum-making facilities in Puerto Rico and due to the long-standing ties between both families, Bacardi purchased the original recipe and the rights to HAVANA CLUB. In 1995, Bacardi relaunched HAVANA CLUB in the United States, based on the original Cuban recipe personally transcribed by Ramon Arechabala. Now the sultry nights, the swanky nightspots, the pulsating Latin music are bottled once more, capturing the essence of the Golden Age.
