

KUSH TIMES

EL BOLETÍN

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE KUSH.

You may have noticed this year brought about a few changes within our restaurant group. This is why we wanted to thank our Kush Fam from the bottom of our heart, for your loyalty, love, and support. It's meant more than you could ever know. The year 2020 has by far been the most challenging year the Hospitality industry has ever seen. However, it wasn't all bad. As a company and team, it further established for us that we have the most incredible patrons who support us and any changes necessary to fit into this 'new normal.' Your health and safety have always been our top priority and continue to be. Every person within the Kush Hospitality team is grateful to each patron who dines, drinks, and helps us spread the 'good word' about their experience with us. We humbly ask for your continued support because the impacts of the pandemic are not yet over, as much as we would like them to be.

Our best advice is to keep calm and EAT KUSH.

LOKAL & KUSH COCONUT GROVE

The Grove is getting its groove back just in time for the Fall breeze, and we are so HERE FOR IT. With LoKal and Kush by Spillover conveniently nestled in this magical little burrow, follow your bliss to the perfect place to take your pup, grab the best burger in town, or a truly magnificent cocktail. After so many months indoors, we hope you'll be stretching your legs and visiting both locales in one day! Local tip: Kush Coconut Grove offers Happy Hour M-F 5-7 pm, and Brunch Saturday & Sunday 11:00 am-2:30 pm.

F*CK FIDEL DAY AT KUSH BY STEPHENS

You're invited on the night before 'Sangsgiving' to join us in celebrating the death of communist POS, Fidel Castro.

On November 25th, 2020, we will commemorate the anniversary of his last day on earth, starting at 5 pm until late. Exercise your freedom and experience fun festivities all while helping to support local Hialeah charity, The Kiwanis Club, serving underprivileged children. Donations will earn you raffle tickets for a chance to win prizes, but we all know the getting is in the giving.

The evening sponsored by Havana Club Rum and will pay homage to the dream of a free Cuba. The featured cocktail for this joyous occasion is our Pata Sucia Punch made with their historic rum.

The highlight of the event is a lively ritual that involves beating the sh't out of the Fidel piñata. The filling of the piñata is a secret, but we promise, you'll enjoy it! No respectable Cuban affair would be complete without a roasted pig made en la Caja China, domino tables, a live band, and Fuck Fidel Cigars to add to the merriment.

Pro Tip: We recommend the well-rounded tasting plate for only $15. El Cubano Completo includes Lechón Asado, Moros, Yuca, a Pata Sucia Punch with Havana Club Rum (in a souvenir cup), plus a shot of Kush Coquito for dessert — TREMENDO DEAL.

The perfect punctuation to this joyous event is a time of death shot at 10:29 pm FREE Havana Club Rum will be passed along for a proper farewell as we collectively YELL — "Pa'riba, Pa'bajo, Fidel pal CARAJOI!"

"Social distancing is encouraged, and we ask all in attendance to be respectful of COVID protocols."

LA COCINA REOPENS!

The long-anticipated day is finally here — La Cocina Cofeteria in Hialeah is NOW OPEN! Insert HAPPY DANCE! Join us for your favorite Hialeah-inspired cocktails with a beefed-up bites menu you'll gladly sink your teeth into. For now, we'll offer weekend hours on Friday & Saturday from 7 pm–Curfew, and slowly but surely return to our regular business hours. So many of you have been eagerly waiting for us to welcome you back and now we can make it official! See you soon at La Cocina!

KUSH COQUITO

If there is one thing we need to start early this year, it's COQUITO SEASON!

Kush Hospitality decided everyone needed a little more merriment in 2020, so the sales of our treasured family Coquito is now available to take home and enjoy over a quiet night of Netflix or your next family gathering. We believe this traditional holiday elixir is a comfort we all need to warm our souls and put us in the holiday spirit. Grab your own bottle of Kush Coquito at Kush by Stephens or La Cocina in Hialeah!

HOLIDAY GIFTING MADE EASY!

With the holidays around the corner, now is the time for action, not leaving your shopping to the last minute. The past year, dining-out was not an option. So now more than ever, people are thrilled to return to their favorite local spot for a great time.

Starting November through Christmas, visit any Kush Hospitality location and receive a free $20 gift card for every $100 in gift cards purchased. The gift of local food, craft beer, and cocktails is a one-size-fits-all solution.

LOCAL SPOT LIGHT: HAVANA CLUB RUM • HERITAGE AND HISTORY

The Arechabala Family started their rum-making business in 1878 in Cuba. They first registered the HAVANA CLUB trademark in 1934. With its well-rounded flavor featuring notes of tropical fruits and hints of vanilla and oak, HAVANA CLUB quickly became a beloved and iconic Cuban brand. It was a favorite of locals as well as American and European tourists flocking to Cuba's chic nightspots and casinos from the late 1930s to the 1960s. HAVANA CLUB became one of the symbols of the razzle and dazzle of that Golden Age.

Then everything changed. On January 1st, 1960, at gunpoint, the Cuban regime seized the company's assets without compensation.

The Arechabala family lost everything and was forced to flee the homeland they loved, with a scant few of their remaining possessions – the precious rum recipe being one of them. But, without the means to restart the rum-making business, it seemed HAVANA CLUB would only exist on a tattered piece of paper.

Just like the Bacardi Family, the Arechabala Family suffered the same sad end to their business in Cuba. However, Bacardi had rum-making facilities in Puerto Rico and due to the long-standing ties between both families, Bacardi purchased the original recipe and the rights to HAVANA CLUB. In 1995, Bacardi relaunched HAVANA CLUB in the United States, based on the original Cuban recipe personally transcribed by Ramon Arechabala. Now the sultry nights, the swanky nightspots, the pulsating Latin music are bottled once more, capturing the essence of the Golden Age.
