LOKAL

LoKal's Chicken n' Waffles was the OG dish that started a movement in Miami. If you didn't have this dish on your menu, you weren't considered relevant. But our Chicken n' Waffles was ahead of its time and has been awarded 'Best in Miami' many times over. Fun fact, it was a favorite of Lebron James when he was winning championships for the Miami Heat.

TOBACCO ROAD BY KUSH. HISTORY

Although Miami-Dade County was under the restrictions of prohibition in 1914, laws against selling and consuming alcohol did not stop store owners from covertly serving liquor in the confines of their legitimate business. We commonly know the term for this type of establishment was called a speakeasy and applied to places you would speak of carefully in public to avoid alerting law enforcement. The old Tobacco Road was known for being part of the secret distribution of alcohol and was infamous for it once prohibition was lifted.

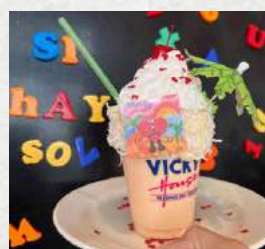

Check out Tobacco Road by Kush to appreciate Kush Hospitality's tribute to a bar that went down in history as one of the most beloved and rebellious of its time.

Ways to enjoy 'The Road' this summer include daily lunch, dinner, happy hour, and live DJs Friday and Saturday nights, or Drag Trivia every Saturday from 4-6 pm!

VICKY'S HOUSE

You asked, and we answered. Now enjoy one of our original over-the-top milkshakes rotating monthly! For June and July, Vicky's House brought back The Breakfast Club milkshake, a classic vanilla shake topped with whipped cream, candied bacon, maple syrup drizzle, a shot of cafecito, and a glazed donut. In the mood for something new? Grab our newly released 'Si Hay Sol Hay Piña Colada' a pineapple, coconut, and vanilla milkshake topped with whipped cream, cherry, heart sprinkles, and rimmed with buttercream dressed with coconut shavings.

KUSH HIALEAH

Did you know that THE BEST SANDWICHES according to Miami New Times can be found at KUSH HIALEAH?!

It's a fact. Our award-winning Rachel and Reuben Sandwiches are not to be missed. We're so honored to be loved by our city and community. Available for dine-in, via toast, DoorDash, and Uber Eats, seven days a week.

KUSH WYNWOOD

If you've been to Kush Wynwood then you've likely noticed the 8-foot-tall mural of Pervis Young by renowned local artist Camilo Rojas. Why did we choose him? Pervis Young is an American artist who lived in Liberty City and Overtown and paved the way for other artists in the community. What started as Young painting over plywood over abandoned windows in alleyways turned into thousands of works which captured the attention of Bernard Davis, owner of the Miami Art Museum. He became a patron of Young's work and propelled him to new heights. He passed away in 2010, but his work is scattered across multiple fine art museums including the Smithsonian, and remains highly regarded for his artistic interpretations of historical events. ## KUSH HIALEAH

The story of Junior Biggers is incredibly unique given the rarity of an employee remaining with one company for over 30 years let alone 65. Now as he prepares for a well-earned retirement, he is passing the buck down to the younger generations working alongside him at Kush Hialeah. His new co-worker, Adim Osorio, son of General Manager and Chef Leo and Alexis, is only 14 years old and learning the position of line cook from the source. The two have a 71-year age difference between them, yet they are perfectly matched due to Junior's wisdom and Adim's enthusiasm to learn. Hand slicing pastrami is a staple and important tradition ingrained in our culture, and we are incredibly grateful to be witnessing the art being passed on. A full interview of this passing of the torch moment at Kush Hospitality by CBS 4 Miami News can be found on our Instagram @Kushhospitality

LA COCINA NEW DRINK MENU

The summer of 2022 is for new cocktails, more tongue-in-cheek references and homage to your Cuban Abuela. The Sapingosa is our nod to Abuela's favorite cleaning product, Fabuloso, a floral gin cocktail with a touch of Violette. Join us this summer at La Cocina Cocteleria, your go-to bar when you want to connect with culture you can only find in Hialeah. Open Friday & Saturday nights at 7 pm.

KUSH CLEAN-UP CREW

Kush Hospitality is making Biscayne Bay clean up a top priority. So we've partnered with the Shake-a-Leg Foundation and The Miami Reef Initiative to do monthly shoreline cleanups. The need is heavy, the 'Kush Clean Up Crew' collected 20 trash bags full of debris and litter in just 4 hours. Our mission is simple: Leave it better than you found it.
