EL BOLETÍN

KUSH BY STEPHENS

If at first you don't succeed always try AGAIN! This paid off BIG TIME with Kush Hialeah taking home FIRST PLACE in South Beach Wine & Food Festival's Burger Bash! Chef Leo Osorio entered the gauntlet with only one strategy, HAVE FUN—and it paid off. As a company we are beyond proud to take home culinary gold after many years coming in short of the title, but we knew our efforts would eventually be rewarded with patience, hard work, and perseverance.

Kush Hospitality would like to recognize our amazing team for going above and beyond to bring this honor home, and prove once again that we can't be stopped!

KUSH HIALEAH

ON THE LIST FOR BEST SANDWICH
IN THE WORLD!

Did you know that Time Out Magazine recently named Newman's Jewban the 15th best sandwich in the world right now?! We are beyond overjoyed to boast this accolade which we feel is coming right on time. To us, at Kush Hialeah, the Newman's Jewban is the perfect blend of cultures and it embodies what we are all about. But don't take our word for it, here's what Time Out Magazine had to say: "It's all stacked high on a couple of pieces of grilled rye bread - a vibrant and earthy alternative to the simple white Cuban baguette - and dressed in yellow mustard and Russian dressing, which is a real treat for folks who like their sandwiches on the saucier side. This one is drippy; it's the kind of two-hander you can't even take your pinky off of without the chunks of tangy meat cascading back onto your plate. If all else fails, fork and knife it. There's no way you're leaving one bite of this Jewban behind."—Virginia Gil

SWEET MELODY X VICKY'S HOUSE

BIG NEWS! Vicky's House just got a whole lot SWEETER—We are now a Sweet Melody Ice Cream SCOOP SHOP and making wildly delicious milkshakes with their locally made craft ice cream! Sweet Melody is the only "Fresh From Florida" state-certified dairy plant in South Florida and one of only three in the state that does their own small-batch craft ice cream. Vicky's House will be carrying eight flavors rotating occasionally which includes two vegan flavors plus a collaboration made just for us named after Kaptain Kush, Miami's first and only superhero. This flavor is a crowd favorite and is made with a brownie batter base, salted caramel swirls, green chocolate crunchies, and topped with our homemade Kush™ Brownie. It's like WHOA. Now you know the scoop so come in enjoy their craft ice cream at Vicky's House!

TOBACCO ROAD BY KUSH

Firstly, if you haven't been to Kush Hospitality's tribute to Tobacco Road then we need to recommend you get out more. We brought back a legendary bar that warmed hearts with soulful live blues music and a whole lot of whiskey. Tobacco Road by Kush is now open in a new location two doors down from where it stood for 112 years, and we're keeping up with tradition and serving a live music lineup every Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday starting at 9 PM. Join us for lunch, dinner, or a sneaky drink at the Babylon Club nestled behind the glitter curtain in the back of the restaurant.

WTF is The Babylon Club? We're glad you asked - this speakeasy bar is a cozy and dimly lit lounge with Scarface disco vibes circa 1983 and you can even rent it out for private gatherings and celebrations by emailing Tina@kushhospitality.com for details.

The Babylon Club is a whole mood, as they say, and you'll certainly be glad to stumble into this hidden gem. Even more good news—starting this summer the Babylon Club becomes the best damn Bloody Mary Bar you've ever been to—and we mean that literally.

KUSH CUBANO FEATURED ON BARSTOOL SPORTS

It was a HUGE honor to be recognized and featured on the first episode of Neighborhood Eats on the Barstool Sports Instagram. They were on the hunt for the best Cuban sandwiches Miami has to offer and to be featured side by side with legends like Islas Canarias and Versailles was flattering, to say the least. Check out their new segment and be sure to catch Kush Wynwood on the first episode!

KUSH COCONUT GROVE Collects Oyster Shells to support The Biscayne Bay Restoration Project.

South Florida needs to become aware that pollution is affecting our water quality which is actively diminishing in Biscayne Bay. This has real repercussions and will largely affect our economy if we don't act quickly. In a nutshell, Biscayne Bay is no longer receiving regular influxes of freshwater which supports marine life and healthy seagrass. Why is this a problem? Because seagrass is a regulator of oxygen levels, temperature, and prevents storm surge and shoreline erosion, what's more, is seagrass is a habitat for our sea life which is directly impacted by water quality and would cause a drastic and damaging ecological collapse. Kush Hospitality has eco-friendliness in the DNA of the company, thus participating in these efforts is a no-brainer. We've partnered with Albert "Tico" Aran to provide him with empty oyster shells which he is using to create new oyster habitats that filter water, consume problematic algae and support seagrass growth. Biscayne Bay is alive and we want to be part of the change that preserves it. Get informed and get involved.

You may be wondering if you just read that correctly, and you certainly did. Kush Hospitality is hosting the first-ever annual event, Pata Sucia Palooza a.k.a. The Hialeah Chanclleta Summer Olympics. Join us as we watch teams of Hospitality titans compete for the Golden Chanclleta, bragging rights, and BIG CHANCLETA ENERGY. These Olympic-style games require the masterful use of a chanclleta, and the competitors will be tested for strength, accuracy, and basic chanclleta wielding power.

This fun-filled community event is sponsored by Jim Beam and the participating teams include: Union Beer Store • Unbranded Brewery • Lincoln's Beard Brewery • Finka Table & Tap • Beaker and Grey • La Placita • Phuc Yea

Experience this friendly competition on the sidelines and bet on your favorite hospitality group for a chance to participate in a lighting round for a grand prize! Oh, but it gets even better—this event will be hosted by Lucy Lopez with a live 'Play-by-Play' by James Beard Nominee Michael Beltran.

Also enjoy a Live DJ, Free Food from our Gator Caja China when you RSVP through Eventbrite and help us collect shoes for donations to Shoes For Streets benefitting the homeless community. Sign up through Eventbrite today, and let the games begin!
